

FROM THE DESK OF Fr. Murphy

Dear Friends,

A big tip of the hat this week to the members of our PPC (Pastoral Planning Council). As we all know, the Diocese of Brooklyn is in the midst of serious strategic planning in all parishes. This has resulted in our PPC working many hours formulating our Parish Plan and many more hours completing multiple surveys sent to us by the diocese. If anyone needs the summer break, they do! The members of the PPC are Sr. Valeria Belanger, Ray Guidone (secretary), Maura Lorenzen, Sandy Maskell, Tom Meany (chair), Geri Anne O'Beirne, Charlie Pigott, Ann Ryan, Regina Ryan, Greg Smith, Gilliann Winn, and myself.

My sister Kathleen sometimes asks me how do I keep up with all the events occurring at St. Saviour (she checks our website!). My answer is always the same: because of the great people who surround me and support me. Ten bulletins wouldn't provide enough space for me to mention them all—and so many of them are "behind the scene"—but please, all of you know how grateful I am to each of you. We're completing another very blessed pastoral year together, thank God.

Next week will be our last "live" bulletin until September 11. Enjoy a wonderful and safe summer. Please continue to pray for me. Thank you. God bless you.

—Love, Fr. Murphy

THE CHURCH IN YOUR LIFE

Today, for every person who joins the Catholic Church, four people leave. Young Catholics need examples of how genuinely to live the Faith and reasons to do so. We are looking for individuals to share personal stories/reflections about the positive role the Catholic Church has played in their life. How has Catholicism shaped the way you view the world and how you live your life? What advice would you give to young Catholics? Why should young Catholics stay in the Catholic Church? Please focus on your personal experience and story. Please send submissions (no more than 500 words) for this book project to: catholicinspires@gmail.com. Thank you.

MILITARY HEALTH SERVICES

St. John's University is offering free, confidential mental health services to military personnel and their families. The Center treats individuals, couples, and families—it's expertise in offering state-of-the-art services for the treatment of PTSD. The program is a way to say thanks to the dedication and sacrifice the men and women in our uniformed services have made for the benefit of our country. For more info call Richard Morrissey, PhD at (718) 990-5470.

FAMILY, MARRIAGE, & INDIVIDUAL THERAPY

NYS licensed professional therapy is available to our parish and 113 other parishes. This program, under the direction of Dr. George Giuliani, has been conducted for the convenience of parishioners in the Diocese for the past 36 years. Services are provided by the Catholic Counseling Center, a proprietary professional corporation, which is independent of and not controlled or supervised by the parish or Diocese. Most insured policies, including Medicare, are honored. Confidential information and appointments are available by calling Dr. Giuliani at (631) 243-2503 or by visiting <http://the.catholiccounselingcenter.com>.
